Annual General Meeting of SAF-HOLLAND SE on June 11, 2024

Information on the rights of shareholders

The notice convening the Annual General Meeting already contains information on the rights of shareholders pursuant to Art. 56 sentences 2 and 3 of the Council Regulation (EC) No. 2157/2001 on the Statute for a European company (SE) (“SE Regulation”), Section 50 (2) of the German SE Implementation Act (SE-Ausführungsgesetz – “SEAG”), Sections 122(2), 126 (1), 127, 131(1) and 293g (3) of the German Stock Corporation Act (Aktiengesetz – “AktG”). The following explanations serve to provide further clarification.

1. Additions to the agenda at the request of a minority pursuant to Article 56 sentence 2 and sentence 3 SE Regulation, Section 50(2) SEAG, and Section 122(2) AktG

Pursuant to Article 56 sentence 2 and 3 of the SE Regulation and Section 50(2) of the German SE Implementation Act, whose contents correspond to Section 122(2) sentence 1 AktG, shareholders whose shares alone or together reach the pro rata amount of EUR 500,000.00 of the share capital (this corresponds to 500,000 shares) may request that items be placed on the agenda and published. Each new item must be accompanied by a statement of reason or by a draft resolution. The request must be addressed in writing to the Management Board of the Company and must be received by the Company in accordance with Section 122(2) sentence 3 AktG at least 30 days before the Annual General Meeting, i.e., no later than May 11, 2024, 24:00 hours (CEST). Requests for additions received later than this time will not be considered. Such requests should be addressed to the following address:

SAF-HOLLAND SE
The Management Board
Hauptstrasse 26
63856 Bessenbach
Germany

A 90-day holding period prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting as required by Section 122(1) sentence 3 AktG is not set as a prerequisite for applying to add a further item to the Annual General Meeting agenda of an SE in keeping with Section 50(2) of the German SE Implementation Act.

Any additional agenda items subject to mandatory public announcement will be published in the German Federal Gazette without delay after they are received and forwarded to those media channels for publication where it can be expected that they disseminate information throughout the European Union. They will also be published

2. Countermotions and election proposals from shareholders pursuant to Sections 126(1) and 127 AktG

Each shareholder is entitled to submit countermotions to the resolutions proposed by the management on the agenda items and to make proposals for the selection of statutory auditors or for the election of members of the Supervisory Board. Such motions and proposals for nomination (together with any reasons) are to be sent only to one of the following contact options:

c/o Better Orange IR & HV AG
Haidelweg 48
81241 Munich
Germany

or

by fax: +49 89 8896906-55

or

by email: antraege@linkmarketservices.eu

Countermotions and proposals for nomination addressed otherwise will not be considered.

Countermotions and proposals for nomination received by the Company at one of the aforementioned contact options no later than May 27, 2024, 24:00 hours (CEST), will be made available to the other shareholders without delay via the Company's website at "<https://corporate.safholland.com/en/>" under "Investor Relations" and the heading "General Meeting". The publication of countermotions and proposals for nomination will include the name of the shareholder and any reasons given. Any comments by the management will also be published under the heading "General Meeting". A countermotion and any statement of reason need not be made available under the conditions of Section 126(2) AktG for example if it exceeds 5,000 characters in total. Section 126 AktG applies mutatis mutandis to a shareholder's proposal

3. Right to information pursuant to Section 131 and Section 293g(3) AktG

At the Annual General Meeting, each shareholder or proxy may request information from the Management Board on the Company's affairs to the extent that such information is necessary for a proper evaluation of an agenda item (Section 131(1) AktG).

The duty to provide information also extends to the legal and business relations of the Company with an affiliated company and to the situation of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements. The Management Board may refuse to provide information on the grounds set out in Section 131(3) AktG.

Regarding agenda item 10, in addition, information is to be provided in the Annual General Meeting to every shareholder upon request in accordance with Section 293g(3) AktG also on all material matters of SAF-HOLLAND GmbH related to drawing up the Profit and Loss Transfer Agreement.

Pursuant to Article 20(3) of the Company's Articles of Association, the chair of the meeting is authorized to impose reasonable time limits on shareholders' rights to speak and ask questions.

The provisions of the SE Regulation, the AktG and the Articles of Association of SAF-HOLLAND SE on which these shareholder rights are based are as follows:

Article 53 SE Regulation – Organisation and conduct of general meetings

Without prejudice to the rules laid down in this section, the organisation and conduct of general meetings together with voting procedures shall be governed by the law applicable to public limited-liability companies in the Member State in which the SE's registered office is situated.

Section 131 AktG – Shareholder's right to information (excerpt)

- (1) ¹Each shareholder shall, upon request, be provided with information at the general meeting by the management board on the affairs of the company to the extent that such information is necessary for a proper evaluation of the item on the agenda. ²The duty to provide information shall also extend to the legal and business relations of the company with an affiliated company. ³If a company makes use of the facilitations pursuant to Section 266(1) sentence 3, Section 276 or Section 288 of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch – "HGB"), each shareholder may demand that the annual accounts be presented to him at the general meeting on the annual accounts in the form that would have been used without these facilitations. ⁴The duty of the management board of a parent company (Section 290(1) and (2) HGB) to provide information at the general meeting to which the consolidated financial statements and the group management report are submitted also extends to the situation of the group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements.

(2) ¹The information shall comply with the principles of conscientious and faithful accountability. ²The articles of association or the rules of procedure pursuant to Section 129 may authorise the chairman of the meeting to impose reasonable time limits on the shareholder's right to ask questions and to speak, and to determine further details in this respect.

(3) ¹The management board may refuse to provide information,

- 1. to the extent the provision of the information is likely, according to reasonable commercial judgement, to cause a not inconsiderable disadvantage to the company or an affiliated company;*
- 2. to the extent it relates to tax valuations or the amount of individual taxes;*
- 3. on the difference between the value at which items have been stated in the annual balance sheet and a higher value of such items, unless the general meeting adopts the annual financial statements;*
- 4. on the accounting and valuation methods, insofar as the disclosure of these methods in the notes suffices to give a true and fair view of the net assets, financial position and results of operations of the company within the meaning of Section 264(2) HGB; this shall not apply if the general meeting adopts the annual financial statements;*
- 5. to the extent the management board would render itself liable to prosecution by providing the information;*
- 6. insofar as, in the case of a credit institution, a financial services institution or a securities institution, information need not be given in the annual financial statements, management report, consolidated financial statements or group management report on the accounting and valuation methods applied and offsetting made;*
- 7. to the extent that the information is continuously available on the company's website for at least seven days before the commencement of and at the general meeting.*

²For other reasons, the information may not be refused.

(4) ¹If information has been given to a shareholder outside the general meeting because of his or her capacity as a shareholder, it shall be given to any other shareholder at his or her request in the general meeting, even if it is not necessary for the proper assessment of the item on the agenda. [...] ³The management board may not refuse to provide the information pursuant to paragraph 3 sentence 1, nos. 1 to 4. ⁴Sentences 1 to 3 shall not apply if a subsidiary (Section 290(1) and (2) HGB), a joint venture (Section 310(1) HGB) or an associated company (Section 311(1) HGB) provides the information to a parent company (Section 290(1) and (2) HGB) for the purpose of including the company in the consolidated financial statements of the parent company and the information is required for this purpose.

Convenience Translation

- (5) ¹*If a shareholder is refused information, he or she may request that his or her question and the reason for which the information was refused be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. [...]*

Section 293g AktG – Conduct of the general meeting (excerpt)

- (3) Upon their making a corresponding demand, each shareholder is to be provided with information at the general meeting about any and all matters of the other contracting party that are key to the conclusion of the agreement.

Article 20 of the Articles of Association of SAF-HOLLAND SE – Chairmanship of the General Meeting (excerpt)

- (3) ¹*The Chairman of the meeting is authorized to set reasonable time limits on the right of shareholders to speak and to ask questions as defined by Section 131(1) sentence 1 AktG, to ask follow-up questions as defined by Section 131(1d) sentence 1 AktG and to ask new questions as defined by Section 131(1e) sentence 1 AktG. ²In doing so, the Chairman of the meeting shall be guided by the fact that the General Meeting is to be held in a reasonable and appropriate time.*
